

REMARKS

The previously pending claims 208-214 and 217-218 have been canceled without prejudice or disclaimer. Applicant reserves the right to pursue the prosecution of these claims in a continuation application. In the Office Action mailed October 17, 2007, Examiner has declared claims 158-164, 166-202 and 205-207 as being allowed. Examiner also indicated claims 215-216 would be allowed if written in an independent form including all limitations of their base claims.

Applicants have re-written claims 215 and 216 in an independent form including all limitation of their base claims. Accordingly, they should now be in condition for allowance. Applicants respectfully requests the issuance of a Notice of Allowance for the pending claims 158-164, 166-202, 205-207, and 215-216.

CONCLUSION

Applicants submit that all claims are in condition for allowance and applicants respectfully request that all claims be allowed.

Applicants request that any questions concerning this matter be directed to the undersigned at 609-844-3030. If a telephone conference would be of assistance in advancing the prosecution of the present application, Applicants' undersigned attorney invites the Examiner to telephone at the number provided.

Applicant also authorizes the charge of any deficiency and/or the credit of any overpayment to Deposit Account No. 50-1943.

Dated: February 18, 2008

Respectfully submitted,
